

american society of forensic odontology

Research Funded in 2004

- 1) Anthony J. Hill and Pamela J. Craig,
Victorian Institute of Forensic Medicine, Australia
Have been awarded $2,000.00 to study: "A photographic and radiographic study of the dental development of a Victorian population of children from birth to three years."
- 2) Ms Sherie Blackwell (PhD Candidate) and Professor John G Clement,
The University of Melbourne, Australia
Have been awarded $1,400.00 to study: "3-dimensional non-contact morphometric comparisons of human dentitions with simulated human bite marks"
- 3) Prof. Dr. Guy Willem
Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium
Has been awarded $1,350 to study: "Macro- or microscopic tooth characteristics found in bite marks produced by nearly perfectly aligned dental arches."
- 4) Nichole Phan, DDS, Santa Clara County, California
Has been awarded $1,000.00 to study: "Reliability and Applicability of Third Molar Development in Age Estimation in a Vietnamese Population"